'DEATH MY BEST FRIEND,' DOCTOR ENDS OWN LIFE

"I welcome death as my best friend." This was the farewell message to his friends penned early yesterday by Dr. Frank S. Aby, 60 years old, veteran Norwood Park physician, before he deliberately laid out his dress suit for a spread, turned on the gas in his half-completed new home at 6372 Northland highway, and then lay down to die.

Neighbor Receives Death Note.

Mrs. Oscar Hanek, 6455 Northland highway, one of the doctor's neighbors, was responsible for the discovery of the tragedy. Mrs. Hanek, a tailor, found a letter in the doctor's handwriting in her morning mail, addressed with namelessness to the home of Patrolman Robert K. Trager, 6027 Northland avenue, at the Irving Park station.

"You'll find me in the kitchen," ran this note, and a few moments later Mrs. Hanek and Trager detected the gas fumes coming through the Aby kitchen door.

Lying the log which the doctor had left suspended from a fitting outside, the two entered and found Dr. Aby's body on the floor. His note, knawled upon a piece of cardboard, was displayed conspicuously near by.

"I am dying and wish to die in my own house," said the note. "Perform no autopsy and don't mortify my body. I've put up a good fight for fifteen years, but the battle is ended. I welcome death as my best friend and will meet him halfway."

Estranged from Wife.

Dr. Aby, it was learned, ceased active practice years ago to become a building contractor, and he left about $7,000, earned in this business, it is said. Fifteen years ago he became estranged from his wife, Mrs. Alice Aby, who took Captain their daughter, and Stanton, their son, to live in Minneapolis, where Mrs. Aby now resides at 3039 Holmes Avenue.

It was rumored that Dr. Aby in his wife bought him a plot of ground to live there, but followed a friend,

From my parents, Henry and Susanna Sensenig Eby, I have taken all their descendants to the youngest and of those who died I have taken the age also.

On my wife's (Susanna Ranck Eby) side I have taken the record the same as on my side—her grandparents, Jacob and Anna Stock Ranck, and uncles, aunts and cousins, and the parents John and Hannah Eaby Ranck, down to the youngest with the ages of those who died.

This has been quite a work and some expense, but I enjoyed it.

JACOB EBY,
Lancaster, Pa., U. S. A.

I will first take up the record of the Eby side from the first settlers to the United States from Holland or Switzerland in the spring of 1715. I have examined different records and from what I learned from my youth up they all appear to correspond. I think it is about as true a record as can be taken. I have spent no time or means to get it correct. I have just taken the lineage from Theodorus<sup>1</sup> to Christian<sup>2</sup>, to Christian<sup>3</sup> to Grandfather Peter<sup>4</sup>, the great Bishop of the Mennonite Church. First to page 3. I have written as briefly as I thought it could be understood: b. for born, d. for died, Jan. for January, Feb. for February, Mar. for March and so on. Taking the record of the names is like this: Peter Eby<sup>5</sup>, and next under his name his wife, Elizabeth Weaver Eby, her full maiden name; Susanna Eby Hoover, next her husband, David Hoover, so that I thought it could be easily understood. Each generation is marked with a small figure 1, 2, etc.

Second, I will take up the record of the Sensenig family on page 54, 24.

Third, I will take up the record of the Ranck family, starting on page 40, 51, 52.

Fourth, I will take up the record of the Eaby family, starting on page 57, 58, 59.

THEODORUS EBY, son of Bishop Jacob Eby, was born in Canton Zurich, Switzerland, on April 25, 1663. He left his native country about the year 1704 on account of religious persecutions. From 1704 till 1715 he resided in the Palatinate or Pfaltz, Germany. Finding persecution here equally severe as in the country just left, he, in company with other co-religionists, left for Philadelphia in the spring of 1715. Some time in August of the same year he settled on what is now called Mill Creek, at a place now known as Roland's Mill, situated south of New Holland in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Some time during September, 1737, he died; in his seventy-fifth year. Theodorus' family consisted of five sons and one daughter. Their names were Peter<sup>2</sup>, Hannes<sup>2</sup>, Jacob<sup>2</sup>, Christian<sup>2</sup> and David<sup>2</sup>, and the daughter's name was Elizabeth. Her husband was Hannes Bach. Christian Eby<sup>2</sup> had a family of ten children:

There were two other Ebys who came from Germany to the United States besides Theodorus. Peter Eby arrived in Philadelphia in the year of 1719. Peter Eby was a nephew of Theodorus. Nicholas Eby, a descendant of the same family, who came to America in the year of 1853.

The Ebys belong to the Celts, an ancient race of Asiatic origin, who formerly inhabited southern, central and western Europe. During the early ages they lived in the northern part of Italy, where they were brought from heathendom to the worshipping of the true and living God through the labors of the Vaudois, with whom they came in contact at a very early date. They soon became strict adherents to the Vaudois' faith. Between the years 1300 and 1320 the Ebys, with others, left Lombardy, their Italian home, crossed the Alps and, after leading a wandering life for some years, settled in Canton Berne. Here they led a God-fearing life and were rigid in the keeping of their primitive faith and form of worship.

During the Reformation they were subjected to the same persecutions as other Protestants in northern Europe. After the founding of the Mennonite body in 1537 by one of the early reformers named Simon Menno, a native of Holland, the Ebys, with others, united with Simon Menno's party, now known as Mennonites.

As early as 1683 we find in some old records that one Jacob Eby was ordained bishop of the Mennonite body in Canton Zurich. The state party again getting the ruling power into their hands, laid the Mennonites open to persecution, and not wishing to resist the authority of the state, a number of these Mennonites left Switzerland and went to the Palatinate or Pfaltz, and old German division now discarded on maps. Here they resided for some time, when they were again troubled by their enemies for not conforming to the laws and church of the state. The laws of the state were not so much violated by these parties, only they would not take up arms nor would they speak in favor of war, but took a decided stand against all manner of war, hence their frequent abuses by the state parties.

When William Penn, by his agents, offered free homes to persons of all religious denominations, quite a number of Mennonites from Switzerland, Germany, Pfaltz and Holland moved to America and settled in Pennsylvania.

They had this assurance that if once in Pennsylvania, they could worship God according to their views of the teaching of the Bible and the dictates of their own consciences, which they considered more than a recompense compared with their losses and privations in forsaking their native land. Among the numerous parties thus quitting their parental homes and coming to the wilds of America was Theodorus Eby. Our ancestor was the son of Jacob Eby, Bishop in the Mennonite Church of Germany. (Gotten up by Ezra Eby of Canada.)

also good, somewhat better than average (20). The British government's public administration is roughly 10 percent more efficient than ours, while our public sector is roughly 10 percent less efficient than the British one. This suggests that the public administration in Britain is roughly 20 percent more efficient than ours. I have examined all the records, deeds and papers that I could get hold of and they all point to the year of 1734 when the Sensenigs came to North America landing at Philadelphia. There were three in number: Jacob<sup>1</sup>, Christian<sup>1</sup> and John Sensenig<sup>1</sup>. I often heard my mother and others that were older than I say that a child about four years old was taken up off of the road, and all they could get the child to say was "Sensen." He would repeat this "Sensen" over and over again, and so they named him Jacob Sensenig. This Jacob Sensenig had three sons as named above, and those three boys came to America and the name of Sensenig was not left in Germany. I am satisfied and overpersuaded that this is a correct statement of the Sensenig family, that we are all descendants of this Jacob Sensenig. I might say yet that the time this child was taken up, was a time of war and persecution in Germany, that many parents and grown-ups were killed and murdered and the children left run, and I suppose that those who cared for this Jacob Sensenig, were Mennonites and raised him as a Mennonite.

I want it understood, when I mention Mennonite in this book it means the inspired word of God. That is the book called the Bible which was written by men that were inspired by God to write it. That is what the Mennonite Church was built upon. Being baptised into the church does not make us Mennonites without keeping the whole inspired word.

The actual account of Jacob Sensenig<sup>1</sup>, bought of Thomas Penn and Richard Penn in the year of 1734. There was surveyed and laid out unto Jacob Sensenig<sup>1</sup> of the County of Lancaster, the quantity of two hundred and eleven and three quarter acres, entered in the office for Recording of Deeds for the City and County of Philadelphia, in Patent Book d, Vol. 13, page 301a, the 28th Day of Nov., 1747. The farm or parcel of land that was taken up and bought by Jacob Sensenig<sup>1</sup> of the Penn Co. in the year 1734 and patented in the year 1747 was deeded to Jacob Sensenig<sup>2</sup> in the year 1781, and then deeded to John Sensenig<sup>3</sup> in the year 1817; next deeded to John B. Sensenig<sup>4</sup> in Mar. 15, 1851; next to Isaac G. Sensenig<sup>5</sup>, who resides on the old homestead to this day. The farm has been divided in parts, but Isaac has the position where the old building stood. Jacob Sensenig had a family of six children as follows:

Names	Born	Died	To whom married
Jacob <sup>2</sup> . . . . .	Mar. 1, 1730	Mar. 13, 1811, age 81 y. 12 d.	Not known.
John <sup>2</sup> . . . . .	Oct. 12, 1764	Oct. 12, 1826,	Susanna Rutt, age 62 y. age 92 y. 9 m. 14 d.
Peter <sup>2</sup> . . . . .	Practicing Physician.	Moved to York County.

Jacob Sensenig<sup>1</sup> was the only one of the three who raised a family. Christian was married but raised no children, and took up land south of Terre Hill, near where my grandfather, John Sensenig, bought a farm from Jacob Martin and —— Kitzmill. John Sensenig<sup>1</sup> never was married and raised no children.

I will now take up the family tree of my grandfather, John Sensenig<sup>2</sup>, who was a son of Jacob Sensenig<sup>1</sup>, and grandmother, Susanna Rutt Sensenig. Ten children:

JOHN SENSENIG<sup>2</sup>, b. Oct. 12, 1764; d. Oct. 12, 1826; age 62 y. Susanna Rutt Sensenig, b. Mar. 3, 1768; d. Dec. 17, 1860; age 92 y. 9 m. 14 d.

I heard my aunt, Elizabeth Sensenig, say that she was born to take care of the old, and it looked so to me, as she took care of her mother till she died, and then died so soon afterward. There were four died out of that family inside of six months—Grandmother, Uncle Joseph, his sister, Aunt Elizabeth, and Cousin Susanna, Uncle Joseph's daughter. There was a vast difference in the ages of these four persons, from nearly nineteen years, up to nearly ninety-three years. This should put us to thinking, for we know not when the Master cometh—whether in the evening, midnight, cock-crow, or in the morning. We are told to watch and pray, and be ready when the Master cometh.

I will first give the lineage from Jacob Sensenig<sup>2</sup> down to Isaac Sensenig<sup>5</sup> on the old homestead of Jacob Sensenig<sup>1</sup>. No record has been found of his birth, death, or age.

* My grandmother, Susanna Rutt Senzenig, died Dec. 17, 1860 and Uncle Joseph Senzenig<sup>3</sup> was well the day of the funeral. I was there and saw him go to the cemetery with the funeral, but he complained that day of not being well, and took typhoid fever and died some time afterward. I can not tell how soon or I would have corrected this mistake. Jacob Eby (fourth generation on the Senzenig side and sixth generation on the Eby side) from Germany. All the descendants from Henry Eby and Susanna Senzenig Eby from Germany are two generations less on the Senzenig side than on the Eby side, so I thought it was not necessary to write this family tree over again.

July 5, 1923. This morning I am prepared with books and papers to take up the true record of the Ranck Family in Pennsylvania, and give a brief account of Philip Ranck, Sr., who was the progenitor of the family of that name in Lancaster County. I have a book of records in my possession taken from the records in Philadelphia of the arrival of the Germans and Swiss who settled in Lancaster County from 1709 to 1730. This is a book record gotten up by Daniel Rupp. I find in this book on page 55 the following: Aug. 24, 1728, in the ship "Mortonhouse," John Coulas, Master, of the ship which put to sail June 5th with 205 persons were imported. On page 56, among the passengers, I find the name of Johan Michael Ranck. And again I found on page 58, Aug. 19, 1729, seventy-five Palatines with their families (about 108 persons) imported in the ship "Mortonhouse," James Coulas, Master, from Rotterdam, whence the ship sailed June 21st. On page 59 I find among the other names, the name of John Philip Ranck. And again on page 60, I find the name of a woman among the names of other women. Her name is Anna Barbara Ranck, arrived on the same ship that Philip Ranck arrived. Now whether Michael and Philip Ranck are brothers or not I am not able to say. I have nothing to go by, but I would suppose they were. Michael came to America a year before Philip, but they might have been corresponding together and this would have brought Philip also.

About Anna Barbara Ranck, I am not able to say whether she was near kin with those two men. Only in this list of women it gives the first woman the wife of Jacob Reif, then mentions the names of several women with the name of Anna Barbara Ranck, and right in the next list it names a lot of women and says, Members, with their husbands. So in looking over those lists it makes me think that this Anna Barbara Ranck was the wife of Philip Ranck. There are but a few names of women in this book. It mostly tells the number of women and men, and gives the names of the men.

In the reunion of the Rancks a few years ago, it was stated that three Rancks came to America. I could find but two in this book, but one might have come later. This book gives from 1709 to 1730 only, but there is an appendix which runs to 1767, but not in general as the first part does as I understand it. There might have been three Rancks came to America, and they might have been brothers too. Who knows?

As there seems to be three heads in the Ranck family that will not fit together, I believe three Rancks came to America, but I am glad that I could give two correctly. I worked and looked up over two months to get it correct. In the Eby and Sensenig families I was acquainted with from youth.

I found in this record, Sept 5, 1738, on page 115, the name of Jacob Runck. I thought it might have been mispelled, which might happen of a man with broken speech.

I will now quote a clipping that was sent me from the New Holland Clarion, a paper published by the late David W. Ranck of near New Holland. March 20, 1909, which is a help to me in getting up the family tree of my dear wife, Susanna Ranck<sup>5</sup>. A brief account of Philip Ranck<sup>1</sup>, Sr., who was the progenitor or father of the family of that name in Lancaster County. He says, "I have been looking up the biography of our Ranck Family and have obtained some information almost forgotten. For the benefit of all the progeny, I give the family tree of our ancestor, Philip<sup>1</sup>, Sr., down to the present time. He had twelve children.

I marked the generations with a small figure 1, 2, 3, etc., as I did in the Eby and Sensenig generations.

Next comes Valentine Ranck<sup>2</sup> in our lineage who had two sons and two daughters. I do not have the names of the two daughters. The two sons are as follows:

Names	Born	Died	To whom married
Michael <sup>3</sup> . . . .	Apr. 1, 1760	Oct. 24, 1826; age 66 y. 6 m. 23 d.

I will now take up Jacob Ranck<sup>3</sup> who was my wife's grandfather. In this record I will take the same as in the Eby record, down to all the uncles, aunts and cousins.

I should have mentioned in the beginning that this Johan Philip Ranck is undoubtedly the Philip Ranck who was the father of all the Rancks of Lancaster County, for it was a common thing at that time in Germany to give brothers the same name and give them a middle name to know them apart. I knew of four brothers having the same first name.

Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction means to minister to their needs—let it be what it will—to their spiritual or natural needs, and to keep unspotted from the world means much. It means apparel and all kinds of business. How can two walk together if they do not agree?

the same time, the market demand for cultural goods, the cultural dimension of consumption (e.g., music, art, etc.) and the social dimension of consumption (e.g., social interaction) are interconnected and do not exist in isolation. This is confirmed by the fact that the majority of cultural products (e.g., books, music, art, etc.) are produced and consumed through social networks. In other words, culture is not just an individual or personal activity, but it is also a collective and social activity.

Therefore, cultural products are not only economic goods (Balogh, 2006), but also cultural goods (Balogh, 2006; Gómez, 2006). Cultural products are not only economic goods, but also social goods (Gómez, 2006). Cultural products are not only economic goods, but also political goods (Gómez, 2006). Cultural products are not only economic goods, but also aesthetic goods (Gómez, 2006). Cultural products are not only economic goods, but also educational goods (Gómez, 2006). Cultural products are not only economic goods, but also spiritual goods (Gómez, 2006). Cultural products are not only economic goods, but also social goods (Gómez, 2006). I Peter 2 : 9. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people.

O friends and fellow travelers, is it not glorious to become a chosen generation! If we are chosen by God. A peculiar people, changed from this world's life to a life of everlasting glory. Then we will hear the summons, Well done, ye faithful; come in, inherit the kingdom of God.

With the Eaby family it is the same as with the Eby family. They all originate from or are all descendants of Theodorus Eby<sup>1</sup>. My grandfather, Peter Eby<sup>4</sup>, and my wife's grandfather, Jacob Eaby<sup>4</sup>, were first cousins. Christian Eby<sup>2</sup> was the grandfather of both Jacob Eby<sup>4</sup> and Peter Eby<sup>4</sup>. So then Christian Eby<sup>2</sup> was the progenitor of those two branches of this Eby family. Christian Eby<sup>2</sup> had seven boys: Christian<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>, Peter<sup>3</sup>, Andrew<sup>3</sup>, George<sup>3</sup>, Samuel<sup>3</sup>, Michael<sup>3</sup>.

I am not able to say which of those sons of Christian Eby<sup>2</sup> is the father of this branch of the family. As I am not able to give the family further back than to grandfather Jacob Eaby, I will start right there to give the family tree. More then we branch from Christian Eby<sup>2</sup>. One of my wife's uncles was once at our place on a visit, who was a son of grandfather Jacob Eaby<sup>4</sup>, and in talking over the relationship of our families, said that his father's first deeds were written in the name of Eby. He must therefore have been one of the first to change the name from Eby to Eaby. I often wondered why this was, but can not tell. I often thought if my father or grandfather would have changed in that way, I would go right back in the original name, that is Eby, for I think it is wiser to make the name shorter than longer.

In this conversation that we had with our uncle, my wife and I learned that we were third cousins. We were then married several years, but this did not effect our love for one another, as we had loved one another dearly long before we were married. If young people would love one another before they got married, I think there would not be so many divorces. At this conversation my father, Henry Eby<sup>5</sup>, was with us, and he was a man who was very inquisitive. There was an Eby who lived not far from Intercourse and he asked this uncle how they were related. He said that was his father's brother. My father then said that Eby was first cousin to his father, that is that Peter Eby<sup>4</sup> and Jacob Eaby<sup>4</sup> were first cousins. In this conversation I was able to get the record as well or as near together as I did. It is something over forty years since we had this talk, but I remember it almost all, but there will be one link missing from this chain. My grandfather<sup>4</sup> was a son of Christian Eby<sup>3</sup> and he had seven boys: Christian<sup>3</sup>, Peter<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>3</sup>, the next day. I am writing to you now from the same place, and I have just come back from a walk in the hills. The weather is very fine, and the air is full of the fragrance of the pine trees. I have been thinking a great deal about you lately, and I have been trying to find ways to help you. I have been reading books on psychology and self-help, and I have been talking to other people who are going through similar challenges. I have learned that it is important to have a positive attitude, to set goals, and to take action towards those goals. I have also learned that it is important to seek support from others, and to surround yourself with positive people. I have been trying to apply these principles to my own life, and I have found them to be very helpful. I hope that you will find them helpful as well. Please let me know if there is anything else I can do to help you.

I will now start the family tree of Jacob Eaby<sup>4</sup>, whose original name was Jacob Eby. He had a family of ten children:

Whose adorning let it not be that adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel.

But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. 1 Peter 3 : 3-4.

This is a scripture very simple, very easily understood, and so much trampled under foot or disobeyed. Can it be possible to please God in living in this forbidden way? No, never.

In like manner also, that Women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamespacedness and sobriety, not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array.

But which becometh woman professing godliness with good works. I Tim. 2 : 9-10.

Now in Paul speaking to the woman about the wearing of apparel would this excuse the man? No not a bit of it. If the man is the head of the woman he ought to be so much the more warned of this notorious display of the dress. But it seems there is no more shame in the people's faces.

Rev. 22 : 18. For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, if any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book.

19. And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the Book of Life, and out of the Holy City, and from the things which are written in this book.

Now if we look and study over the few scripture texts that I have written in this family tree, and study the whole Bible, how can we think or claim any non-essentials as many do now. God did not send His Son down into the world to tell us stories. He just told us the simple, plain truth and told us to observe it.

John 13 : 17. If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

The happiness is in doing, not in knowing. So let us be up and doing. Amen.

I have now completed this family record as far as I thought of going with it. In looking over these records and writings, I find that our ancestors or pioneers left their native homes where they were well fixed, as far as worldly possessions are concerned, but under their government they could not live a pious and Christian life without being abused, troubled and tormented. Many times they were hunted and had to flee to the mountains or hiding places wherever they could. When William Penn offered them homes in Pennsylvania where they could live and keep house according as they understood the Bible, and according to the dictates of their consciences, they left their native homes and came to the wilds of Pennsylvania as it then was.

When I was a boy growing to manhood, I often heard old people say that when these United States were freed from a king, some of the officers thought those who fought for this freedom should have the right to run the government, and the others have no right to vote or have any say to running the government. At this George Washington took his rifle in his hand and said, I have upper part of the small intestine.

These are the main symptoms of the disease.

The disease is most common in children and young adults, and it is more common in males than in females. It is also more common in people who have had a history of smoking or alcohol abuse.

The disease is usually diagnosed by a doctor based on symptoms and physical examination.

There is no specific treatment for the disease, but it can be managed with medications and lifestyle changes.

The disease is often associated with other health problems, such as heart disease and stroke.

The disease is a serious condition that requires medical attention.

The disease is a chronic condition that requires long-term management.

The disease is a progressive condition that can lead to complications if left untreated.

The disease is a life-threatening condition that requires immediate medical attention.

fought so long to free this country, and I will fight so long again for all to have equal rights in running the government. That word then, equal rights, settled it all.

When the Constitution of the United States of North America was framed, it was framed to give all the settlers of it equal rights, so all could serve their God according to their views of the Gospel and according to the dictates of their conscience, or not to serve God at all, just as they felt.

There is also a clause in the Constitution exempting those who have conscientious scruples against taking up arms to kill. In the Civil War of the United States in 1861, there was no trouble in getting exempted from fighting in that war, for those who had conscientious scruples against fighting. They were compelled to pay a fine of $300 and they were then exempt for the length of time that the draft was to last. The $300 was easy to pay then. It took only 100 bushels wheat or about 175 bushels of corn to pay the fine at that time.

In the late World War it was more difficult to get freed from taking part. Some had to suffer more than a little. Some even died from their persecution. Why is this? Is the government at fault, or are we most at fault. God always takes care of His people. I can't read anywhere in the Bible that God left His people as long as they were obedient to Him. But when they became disobedient, is the time He would let them suffer.

Christ said, if you love me, keep my commandments and I will be with you always.

I have told how our forefathers left their native homes and came to this country. I can not understand why so many of their descendants leave the true old way that they taught, which is so simple and plain in God's Word. I will give a few of them which are trodden under foot so much.

Gen. 35 : 2. Then Jacob, said unto his household, and to all that were with him, put away the strange Gods that are among you, and be clean and change your garments.

Here we can see the strange garments were as much in the way to enter the happy land of Canaan as the strange Gods were. And strange and worldly garments are just as much in the way now to enter the kingdom of Heaven as they were then to enter Canaan.

and the community, and no doubt also itself, are the source of much of our knowledge of the world around us. Hence we must take account of both.

It is not always easy to distinguish between the two influences. In some cases, however, the distinction is clear. For example, the influence of the culture on the individual is often very great, while the influence of the community on the individual is often very small.

sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

Here we can see that all such as are clothed with strange apparel were to be punished the same as for any other sin.

Deu. 22 : 11. Thou shalt not wear a garment of divers sorts, as of woolen and linen together.

To have our garments made of one sort, not to have them look gay and splashy or sewed full of buttons or any other ornaments.

Deu. 22 : 5. The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment; for all that do so are abomination unto the Lord thy God.

This is a command that is very simple indeed, very easily understood, and again it is as strong a command as there is one in the Bible or in God's inspired Word.

In the ten commandments we have them like this (Exodus 20):
Thou shalt have no other Gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image.

Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.

Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness.

Thou shalt not covet.

The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto man.

Here are ten commandments that read alike, all given by the same God. By that God that made heaven and earth and all that is therein. There is not a thing made but what that God made.

I often wondered why a woman was so eager to dress like a man and I often wondered why a church like the Mennonite Church would allow it, which pretends to keep the whole inspired Word of God.

Anything that is abomination unto the Lord thy God can never enter into His kingdom.

There might many more scriptures be taken from the Old Testament on this dress subject.

I will now write a few lines on Christ's teaching.

Luke 7 : 25. But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment. Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in king's courts. This is Christ's word and He says nothing against them being gorgeously apparelled in king's courts, so that is the place for them and not in His Church.

Luke 16 : 19. There was a certain rich man which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day. Not only one day in a week, but every day. I will write this as it reads in the German. There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and costly linen, and lived every day happy and in glory. I suppose that is what a sumptuous living means. In this world there are two ways to live happy and in glory, but in the world to come there is only one way. When this rich man lifted up his eyes in hell, I can not see how he could have had any happiness or glory. But the beggar was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom, where there would be happiness and joy forevermore. Now, if there was no other Scripture or no other lesson about the gaudy apparel than Luke 16 : 19, I think it ought to be sufficient to bring us to think about the baptismal vow we have made on bended knees to God and the church. We have promised to change our dress from the style of the world to what the church has collected as a modest dress. This we have promised in our vow. But there are so many lessons in God's word that discard a gaudy dress. I have quoted some as I made up this family tree, hoping it might be beneficial to some one.

A complete submission to the will of God will bring a simple separated life. The secret of the Master's simple life was in doing the Father's will. He says in Jno. 4 : 34: My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me. Whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, sister and mother (Mark 3 : 35). He also says, I am meek and lowly in heart. I cannot harmonize a proud heart, haughty actions and a fashionable dress with the will of God. Many have yielded in submission to the goddess of fashion. We cannot understand how any one can do this, and still claim to be in submission to God's will.

I see so much of this gaudy dress in the church. Boys and girls dressed to above the knees and of the grandest styles. Some of the mothers dressed plain with a forbidden sweater or coat on, and the father dressed with the world entirely. This does not correspond with God's inspired word. O, but my heart is aching and bleeding for the beloved, so-called Mennonite Church. This is where the church first loses its hold, on the gaudy dress and the notorious musical instruments.

I have written all this out of love. I would wish God's blessing to all.
